

BRIEF PROFILE OF MRS. JAYA ROW

Jaya Row is one of the foremost speakers on Vedanta, Indian philosophy, and its transformative application in corporate life. Vedanta offers powerful techniques for managing your inner resources, leading to success, fulfillment, and growth.

Her seminars highlight simple, yet profound values that drive success, happiness, and excellence in the workplace. They empower executives to achieve both personal and organisational goals, fostering a management style that is deeply fulfilling.

For decades, Jaya Row has shared her insights globally, speaking at prestigious forums such as the World Economic Forum in Davos. Leading corporations like Apple, Google, Intel, KPMG, MasterCard, and Shell, as well as top universities such as Princeton, Purdue, and Washington University, have benefited from her wisdom.
