

T.S. Vishwanath has expertise in analyzing multilateral and bilateral trade agreements, global economic policies, and regulatory frameworks over three decades. He has an in-depth understanding of competitiveness and policy dynamics across sectors. His leadership roles at VeK, a policy advisory and research firm, and ASL-Legal, a law firm focused on trade law combined with his extensive experience engaging with Indian government departments and international organizations, position him as an expert in navigating policy and regulatory challenges. With a rich background as a former Senior Director at CII and a trade policy expert, Vishwanath brings the strategic vision and stakeholder engagement capabilities essential for driving successful projects.