

Ashok K. Kantha is a former senior career diplomat of the 1977 batch of the Indian Foreign Service (IFS) who serves as the Subhas Chandra Bose Chair Professor of International Relations at Chanakya University, Bangalore, an Honorary Fellow and former Director of the Institute of Chinese Studies (ICS), New Delhi, a Distinguished Fellow at both the Vivekananda International Foundation and the Council for Strategic and Defence Research, and Chair of the Core Group on China at the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII). Over a diplomatic career spanning more than 38 years, he specialized in India's immediate and extended neighborhood, with a primary focus on South Asia and China, serving in key foreign policy positions including Secretary (East) in the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), Indian Ambassador to China, High Commissioner to Sri Lanka, High Commissioner to Malaysia, Consul General in Hong Kong, and Joint Secretary (East Asia). Kantha holds a degree in History from Patna University and completed advanced certifications in the Chinese language at Nanyang University and the National University of Singapore.