

Ashok Malik is a Partner at The Asia Group and Chair of its New Delhi-based subsidiary in India where he leads the firm's in-market business strategy and services. Prior to joining TAG, Ashok served for three years (2019-22) as Policy Advisor/Additional Secretary in India's Ministry of External Affairs. In that capacity, he worked closely with the senior leadership of the Ministry to help shape and explain India's foreign policy in a crucial and eventful period for the international system. Between 2017 and 2019, Ashok served as principal speech writer and spokesperson for the President of India