

Daulata Chakraborty is a public policy and corporate affairs professional with over 15 years of experience in policy advocacy, government engagement, international trade, and multilateral affairs. She is currently Associate Director – Policy & Corporate Affairs at Jubilant Ingrevia Limited.

Previously, she worked with FICCI and the Ministry of Commerce & Industry, contributing to parliamentary outreach and international initiatives, including BRICS and IORA.

With a Master's in Economics and an MBA in Finance, Daulata brings together economic insight, policy expertise, and a deep understanding of the business–government interface.