Deepak Jacob is an Indian Administrative Service (IAS) officer of the 2014 Tamil Nadu cadre. With an academic background in engineering and extensive experience in public administration, he is widely recognised for his people-centric governance, administrative efficiency, and strategic leadership across multiple sectors. He currently serves as the Managing Director & CEO of Guidance Tamil Nadu, the Government of Tamil Nadu's nodal agency for investment promotion and industrial facilitation.

Over the course of his administrative career, he has held several key positions across healthcare, elections, district administration, cooperative industries, land administration, and public welfare. His previous assignments include Assistant Secretary in the Ministry of Corporate Affairs; Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Tuticorin; Managing Director of Vellore Cooperative Sugar Mills; Joint Chief Electoral Officer of Tamil Nadu; Project Director of the Tamil Nadu AIDS Control Society; Managing Director of Tamil Nadu Medical Services Corporation; District Collector of Thanjavur and Krishnagiri districts; Managing Director of Co-optex; and Director of Survey and Settlement.

Deepak Jacob is known for his impactful leadership in healthcare reforms, welfare governance, district administration, and industrial development. He has contributed significantly to HIV/AIDS awareness initiatives, strengthening healthcare systems, improving public service delivery, and promoting the handloom and cooperative sectors in Tamil Nadu. His administrative approach is marked by transparency, compassion, innovation, and a strong commitment to inclusive and sustainable development.
