

Deepshikha Dharmaraj is the Chief Executive Officer of Burson Group India, overseeing the firm's business interests and growth strategy across Burson Genesis, GCI Health India, and Hill & Knowlton India. Bringing over three decades of experience in integrated communications and public relations, she previously served as CEO of BCW India Group, Chief Business Growth Officer, Chief Talent Officer, and Chief Marketing & Growth Officer, having originally established the erstwhile Genesis PR's presence in Western India by founding its Mumbai and Pune offices. A prominent figure in industry governance, she is a founding board member of the Global Women in Public Relations (GWPR) India chapter, immediate past President and Managing Committee member of the Public Affairs Forum of India (PAFI), and former President of the Public Relations Consultants Association of India (PRCAI). Named PR Professional of the Year at the IPRCCA Awards in both 2019 and 2023, she frequently serves on international juries, including the Cannes PR Lions and D&AD Awards, and holds a Master's degree in Business Economics from Delhi University.