

Manish Tewari is a third term Member of Parliament now representing the Chandigarh Constituency (Union Territory) in the House of the People- Lok Sabha from June 2024 onwards. He was Union / Federal Minister of Information & Broadcasting in the Government of India .

During his previous term in Parliament He served on the Parliamentary Standing Committee of Finance and the Parliamentary Consultative Committee of Defense.

He served on the Joint Committee of Parliament that conceptualized the Law on Data Protection. He also served on the Joint Committee of Parliament that examined the Multi State Cooperative Societies (Amendment Bill) 2022

Manish Tewari practices Law at the Supreme Court of India & in various other High Courts in India.

An international arbitrator with a specialization in various traditional & new Economy Laws.

He was elected as a Member of Parliament from Ludhiana in Punjab from 2009-2014 and from Sri Anandpur Sahib, Punjab from 2019-2024.

He was a Distinguished Senior Fellow at the Atlantic Council in Washington DC from 2016- 2019.

In addition to his Parliamentary and Professional responsibilities he also is the Senior National Spokesperson of the Indian National Congress (INC) ,General Secretary Foreign Affairs Department of the Indian National Congress and Permanent Invitee–Congress Working Committee (CWC) of the Indian National Congress (INC).

He has authored four books. His latest book on India's National Security entitled 10 Flash Points 20 years National Security Situations that Impacted India was a best seller and is topped the charts in its genre.

He has moved various bills in Parliament including and not limited to providing a legal basis and Parliamentary Oversight over India's Intelligence Agencies and other such internal and external security structures in the new domains of cyber, space and Artificial Intelligence.