

Mitali Sarkar

Head of Communications, bp India

Mitali has 22 years of experience in Communication including Branding, Media management, Internal Communication, Crisis Communication and Integrated communication using digital tools and social media platforms. She has experience of working in large multinationals like Schneider Electric and General Electric as well as large Indian companies such as Dr Reddy's where she was the Global Head of Communications and subsequently joined bp. Mitali leads the Communications function in bp India and has been with bp for 6 years till date.