

Murali Retineni, our esteemed Executive Director, possesses a remarkable skillset for brand building and product development that resonates with market needs. Dedicated to bringing the best global technology to the local market, he empowers and enriches customers' lives. An entrepreneurial paragon, Murali inspires positive societal impact and demonstrates an unparalleled understanding of customer sensibilities. His successful execution of challenging projects in mobile handset and component design and manufacturing has earned accolades for efficiency and quality from industry leaders.