

Sandeep is responsible for driving a cohesive policy framework to accelerate the adoption of new technologies for the benefit of the country.

He leads initiatives around public policy & is specially focused on policies towards Artificial Intelligence, cybersecurity building a safe / secure internet. Sandeep is a firm believer in the public - private collaboration model to accelerate adoption of forward-looking policies. Sandeep has worked in various leadership roles at Intel & IESA before Microsoft.