

Tarun Kapoor is a retired 1987-batch Indian Administrative Service (IAS) officer from the Himachal Pradesh cadre who currently serves as an Advisor in the Prime Minister's Office (PMO), focusing on critical energy, economic, and infrastructure policies. An electrical engineer with an MBA, he has built a distinguished career across both state and central governments, most notably serving as the Union Petroleum Secretary until his retirement in November 2021, where he oversaw vital national energy initiatives and pandemic relief programs. His extensive administrative portfolio also includes leadership roles as the Vice Chairman of the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), Joint Secretary in the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, and Additional Chief Secretary for multiple departments in Himachal Pradesh.