Rajeev Ahuja
Executive Director, RBL Bank

Given the information overload these days and a rapidly changing business environment, you look out for analyses that draw perspective and insights. ET Prime is one such platform that has raised the bar in providing this analyses consistently and have redefined journalism away from just reporting. I have had many conversations with their journalists in the areas of Fintech, Consumer and Banking and have come out quite impressed with the depth of their understanding. Infact their reporting on Fintech has been quite prescient.
