Onus on Private Sector to Lead Country on Sustainable Growth Trajectory: Niti Chief

Our Bureau

New Delhi: India's take-off moment has arrived, backed by the advantages of having the world's largest working population and resilient physical and digital institutions, NITI Aayog vice chairman Suman Bery said on Wednesday.

Now the onus lies on the private sector to lead the country on a sustainable growth trajectory, he said, urging corporates to enhance investments on research and development.

Speaking at an event on 'India's Amrit Kaal: Implications on the private sector' organised by Public Affairs Forum of India (PAFI), Bery listed managing urbanisation, making regulations consistent and continuous, adapting to disruptive technologies, managing climate change, and addressing the issue of regional imbalances as key challenges faced by the country.

"If we are to transit from the middle-income trap, the private sector needs to enhance its contribution to R&D through its own investments and under corporate social responsibility (CSR)," he said. "The investment in R&D is 1-2% of the GDP with a huge part of it coming from the government... The private sector contributes less than 40% to the annual R&D spend compared to over 70% that they contribute in advanced countries," Bery said. He called upon the private sector to collaborate with the government to be part of the National Research Foundation or channelise FDI into R&D.

Reiterating that India has the advantage of largest arable land and the largest population of bovine animals, Bery said raising agricultural productivity and having opportunities for displaced labour is a big challenge.

भारत के लिए अब उड़ान भरने का वक्त: नीति आयोग उपाध्यक्ष

नयी दिल्ली, 27 सितंबर (भाषा) नीति आयोग के उपाध्यक्ष सुमन बेरी ने बुधवार को कहा कि दुनिया की सबसे बड़ी कामकाजी आबादी और मजबूत भौतिक एवं डिजिटल संस्थानों की मौजूदगी से भारत के लिए अब उड़ान भरने का वक्त आ गया है।

वेरी ने यहां 'पब्लिक अफेयर्स फोरम ऑफ इंडिया' की तरफ से आयोजित एक कार्यक्रम में कहा कि भारत की अर्थव्यवस्था ऐसे मुकाम पर है जहां निजी क्षेत्र को अधिक महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका निभानी है।

उन्होंने कहा कि निजी क्षेत्र देश में शोध एवं विकास गतिविधियों में 40 प्रतिशत योगदान करता है जबकि विकसित देशों में यह अनुपात 70 प्रतिशत है।

वेरी ने कहा, "यह भारत के लिए उड़ान भरने का वक्त है। मानवता के पांचवें हिस्से के जीवनस्तर में बड़ोतरी देखने को मिलेगी।"

उन्होंने कहा, "इस बात में कोई संदेह नहीं है कि भारत आगे बढ़ रहा है। भारत के पास दुनिया की सबसे बड़ी कामकाजी उम्र वाली आबादी है और इसके पास मजबूत भौतिक एवं डिजिटल संस्थान भी हैं।"

इस मौके पर नीति आयोग के उपाध्यक्ष ने शहरीकरण के प्रबंधन, नियमों को स्थिर एवं सतत बनाने और व्यापक बदलाव वाली प्रौद्योगिकियों को अपनाने जैसी अहम चुनौतियों से निपटने की जरूरत पर भी बल दिया।

India's take-off moment has arrived, backed by the advantage of having the world's largest working population and resilient physical and digital institutions, NITI Aayog Vice-Chairman Suman Bery said on Wednesday. Speaking at an event organised by the Public Affairs Forum of India (PAFI), Bery said India's economy is at a stage where the private sector has to play a more significant role. The private sector contributes 40 per cent of R&D in the country, while its share in developed countries is 70 per cent, he said. "This is India's take-off moment... 1/5th of humanity will have rising living standards," he said. "India is on the move, there is no doubt about it... India has the largest working age population in the world, (and) resilient physical and digital institutions," he said. Bery pointed at the need to address significant challenges, including managing urbanisation, making regulations consistent and continuous, and adapting to disruptive technologies.
